

Privacy Policy

Rationale

All staff of Wantirna South Primary School are required by law to protect the personal information that the school collects and holds.

The Victorian privacy laws, the Information Privacy Act 2000 and the Health Records Act 2001, provide for the protection of personal and health information.

The privacy laws do not replace any existing obligations Wantirna South Primary School has under other laws. Essentially this policy will apply when other laws do not regulate the use of personal information.

In this policy personal information refers to:

Personal information means information or opinion that is recorded in any form and whether true or not, about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can be reasonably determined from the information or opinion. For example, this includes all paper and electronic records, photographs and video recordings.

Health information is defined as including information or opinion about a person's physical, mental or psychological health, or disability, which is also classified as personal information. This includes information or opinion about a person's health status and medical history, whether recorded or not.

Sensitive information is defined as information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union, or other professional, or trade association membership, sexual preferences, or criminal record that is also classified as personal information about an individual.

Aims

Personal information is collected and used by Wantirna South Primary School to:

- provide services or to carry out the school's statutory functions
- assist the school services and its staff to fulfil its duty of care to students
- plan, resource, monitor and evaluate school services and functions
- comply with the Department reporting requirements
- comply with statutory and or other legal obligations in respect of staff
- investigate incidents or defend any legal claims against the school, its services, or its staff, and
- comply with laws that impose specific obligations regarding the handling of personal information.

Implementation

❖ The purposes for which the school uses personal information of students and parents include:

- keeping parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling
- looking after students' educational, social and health needs
- celebrating the efforts and achievements of students
- day-to-day administration

- satisfying the school's legal obligations, and
- allowing the school to discharge its duty of care.
- ❖ The purposes for which the school uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:
 - assessing suitability for employment
 - administering the individual's employment or contract
 - for insurance purposes, such as public liability or WorkCover
 - satisfying the school's legal requirements, and
 - investigating incidents or defending legal claims about the school, its services, or staff.
- ❖ The school will use and disclose personal information about a student, parent and staff when:
 - it is required for general administration duties and statutory functions
 - it relates to the purposes for which it was collected, and
 - for a purpose that is directly related to the reason the information was collected and the use would be reasonably expected by the individual and there is no reason to believe they would object to the disclosure.
- ❖ The school can disclose personal information for another purpose when:
 - the person consents, or
 - it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious or imminent threat to life, health or safety, or
 - is required by law or for law enforcement purposes.
- ❖ Where consent for the use and disclosure of personal information is required, the school will seek consent from the appropriate person. In the case of a student's personal information, the school will seek the consent from the student and/or parent depending on the circumstances and the student's mental ability and maturity to understand the consequences of the proposed use and disclosure.
- ❖ A parent, student or staff member may seek access to their personal information, provided by them, that is held by the school.
- ❖ Access to other information may be restricted according to the requirements of laws that cover the management of school records. These include the Public Records Act and the Freedom of Information Act.
- ❖ The school aims to keep personal information it holds accurate, complete and up-to-date. A person may update their personal information by contacting the principal or delegate.
- ❖ School staff and students have use of information and communications technologies (ICT) provided by the school. This use is directed by:
 - the Department and Wantirna South Primary School's acceptable use policy and guidelines for Internet, email and other electronic communications
